

Happiness in the world 2022

Happiness in Different Countries and Its Factors

Data source: The World Happiness Report

It is a publication of the Sustainable Development Solutions Network, powered by the Gallup World Poll data.

Variables:

GDP per capita

Healthy life expectancy at birth

Social support

Freedom to make life choices

Generosity

Perceptions of corruption

Positive affect

Negative affect

Life Ladder

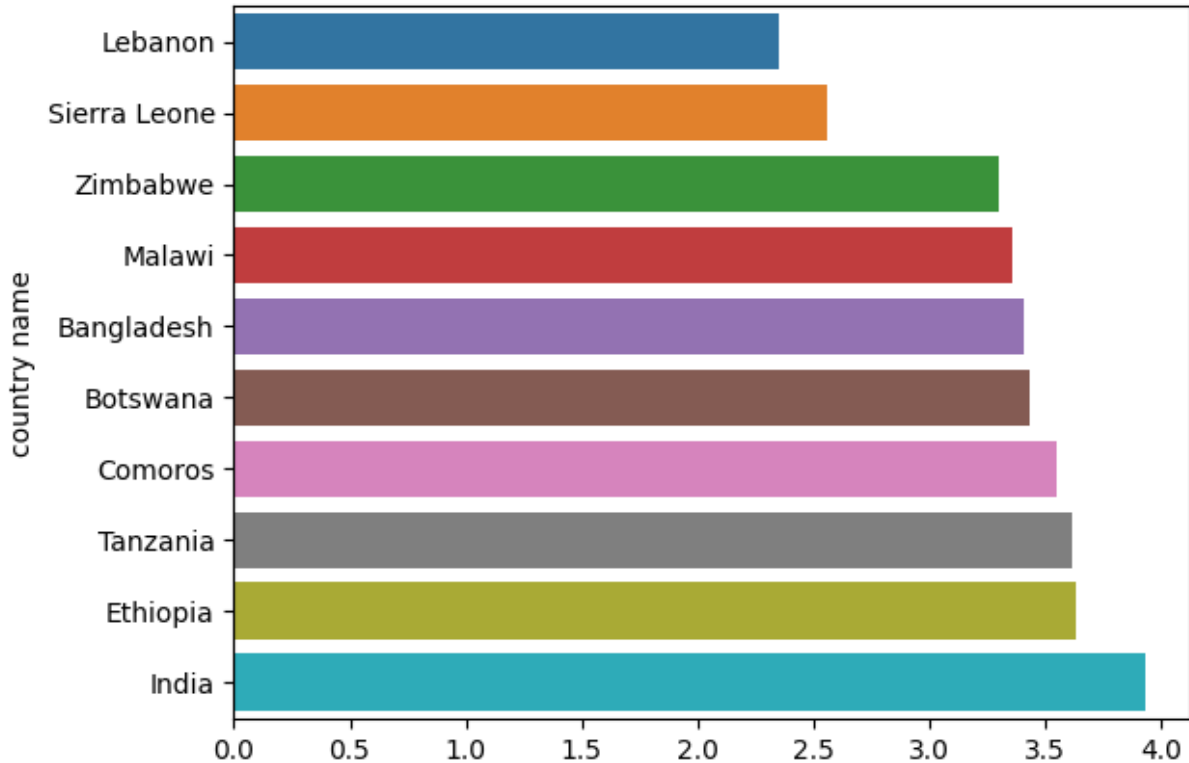

= Happiness

Questions:

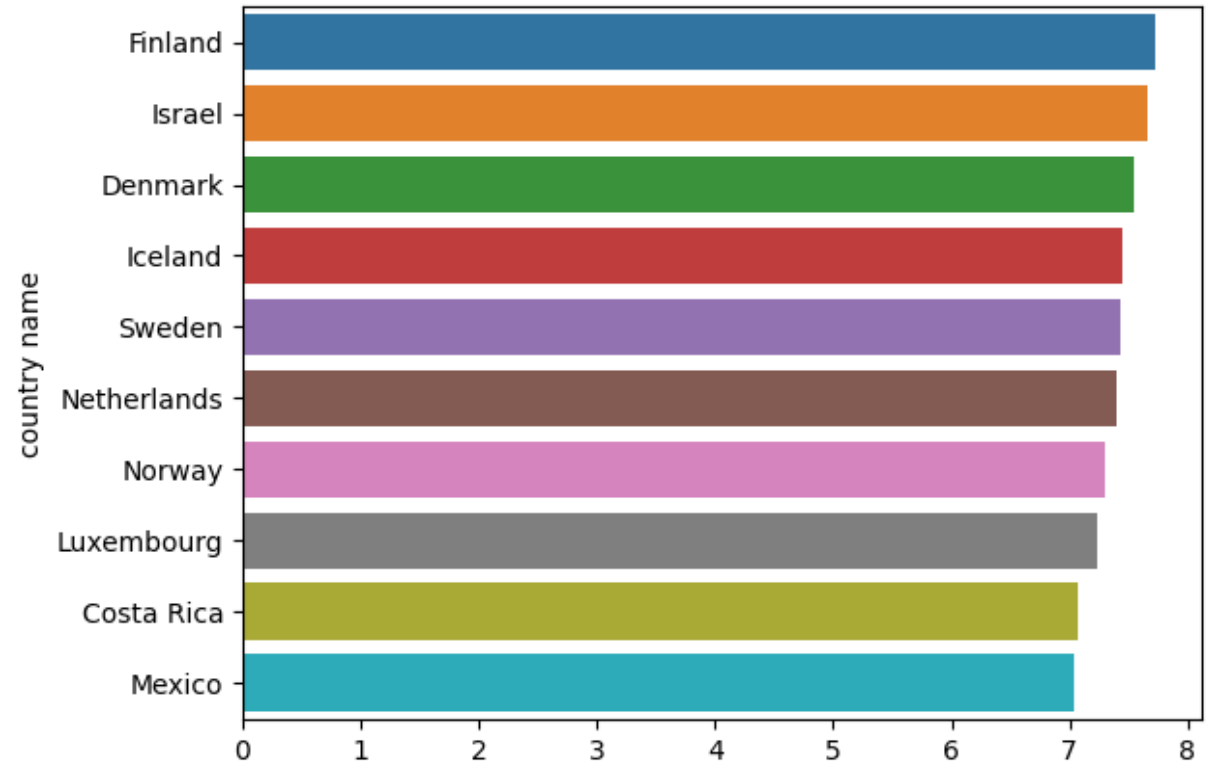

- 1. In which country are people the happiest?
- 2. Which factor is most closely related to happiness index?
- 3. Do people living in richer countries feel happier?

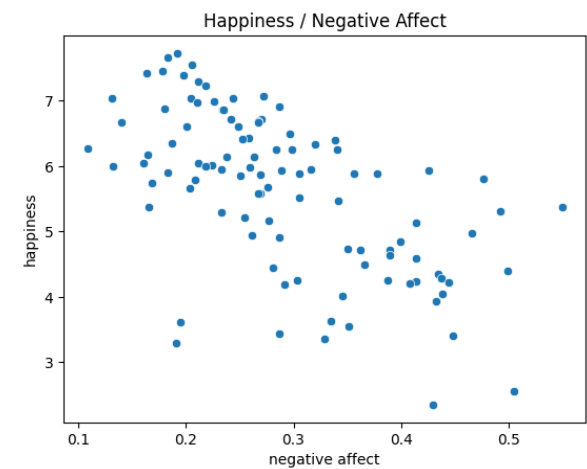

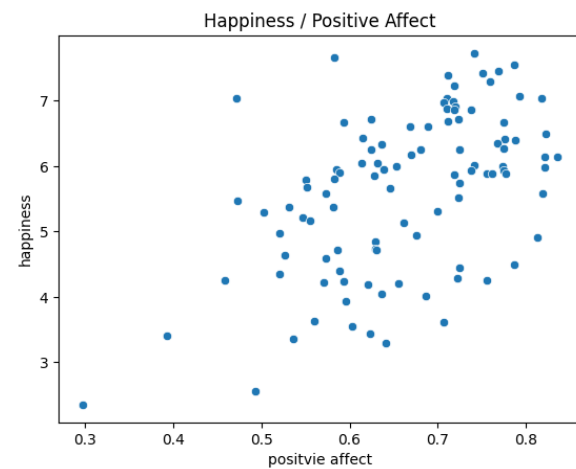

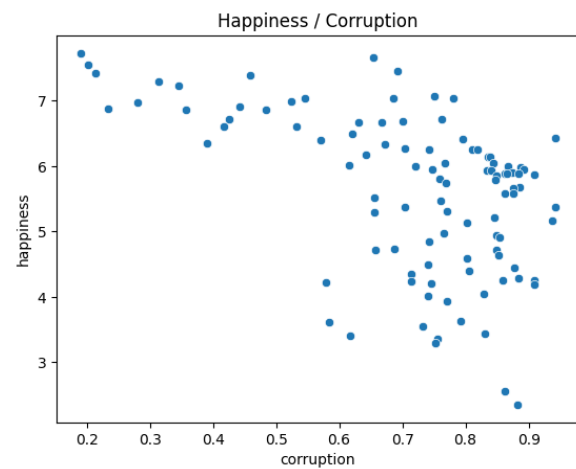

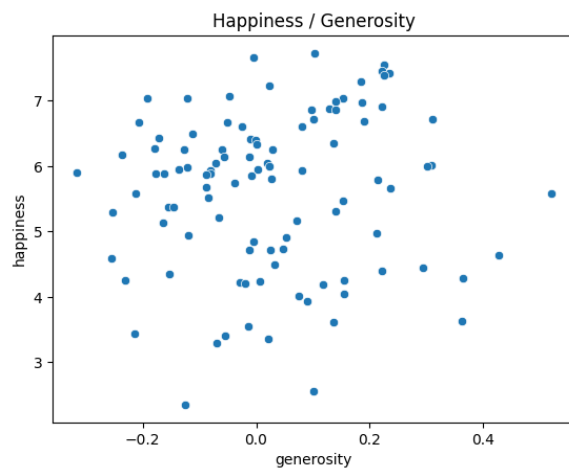

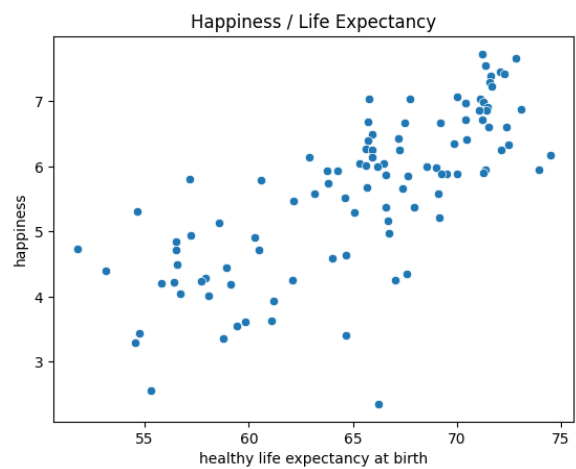

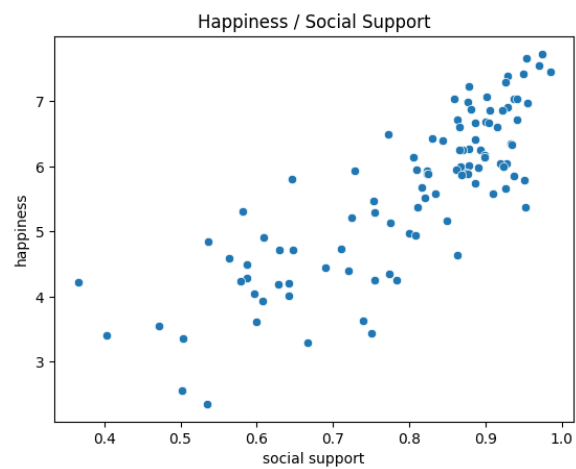

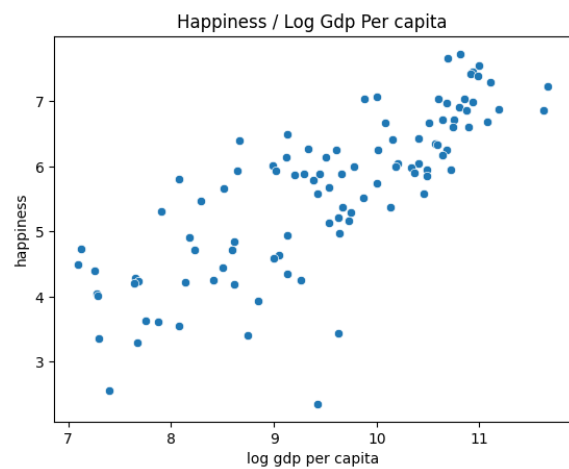

Answer 1: People in Finland are the happiest in the world

10 Unhappiest Countries

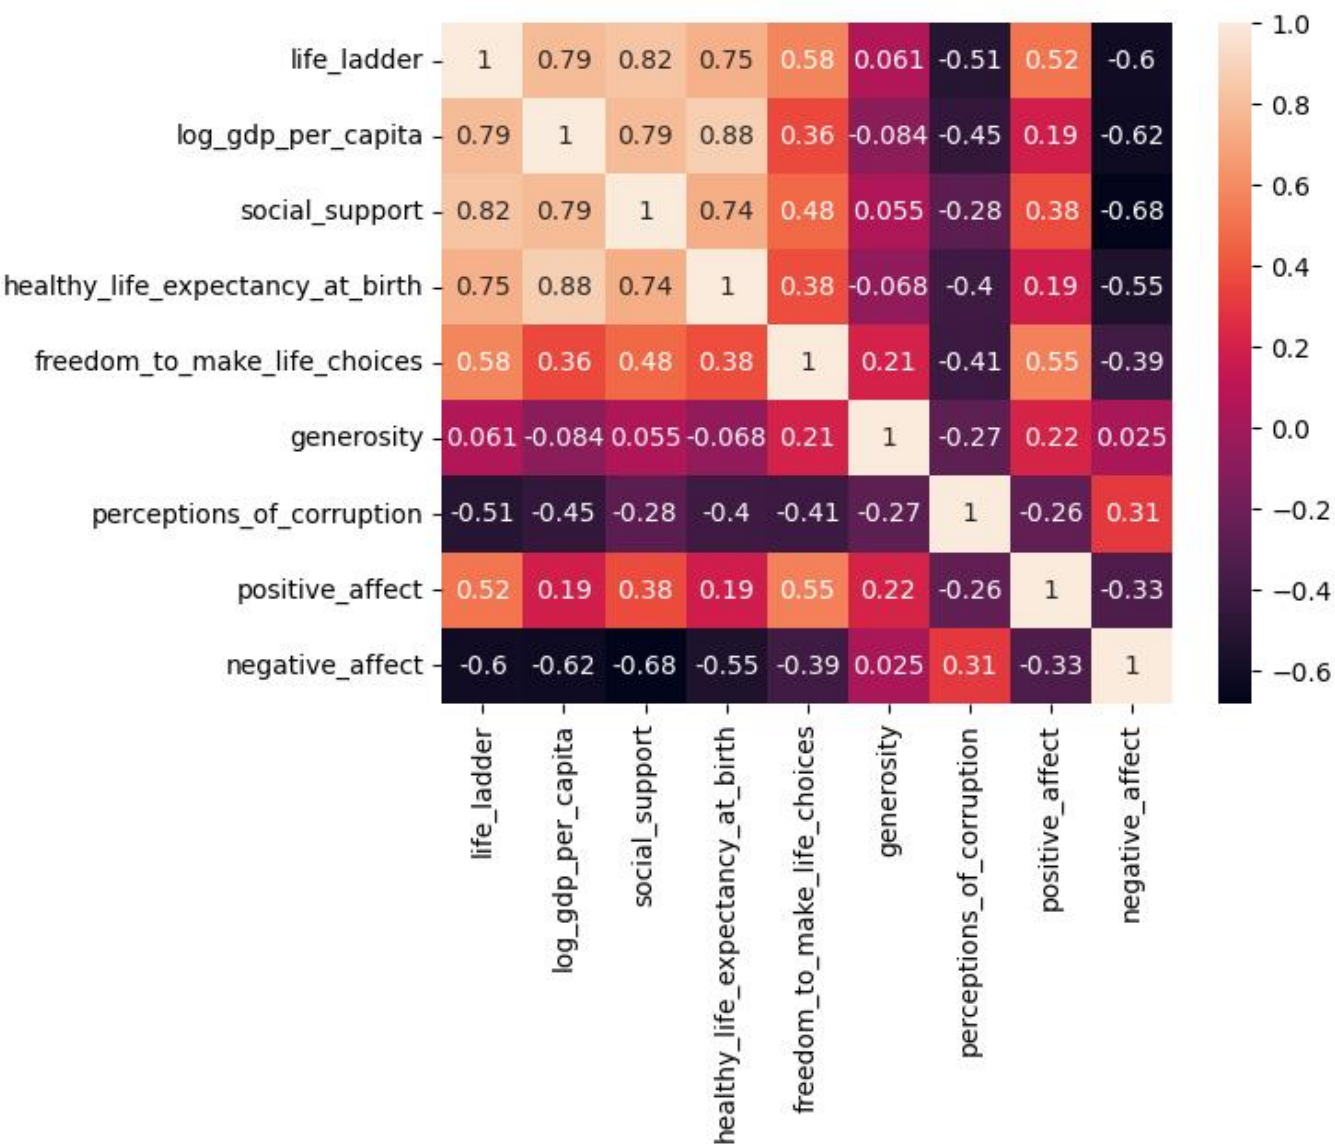

Top 10 happiest countries

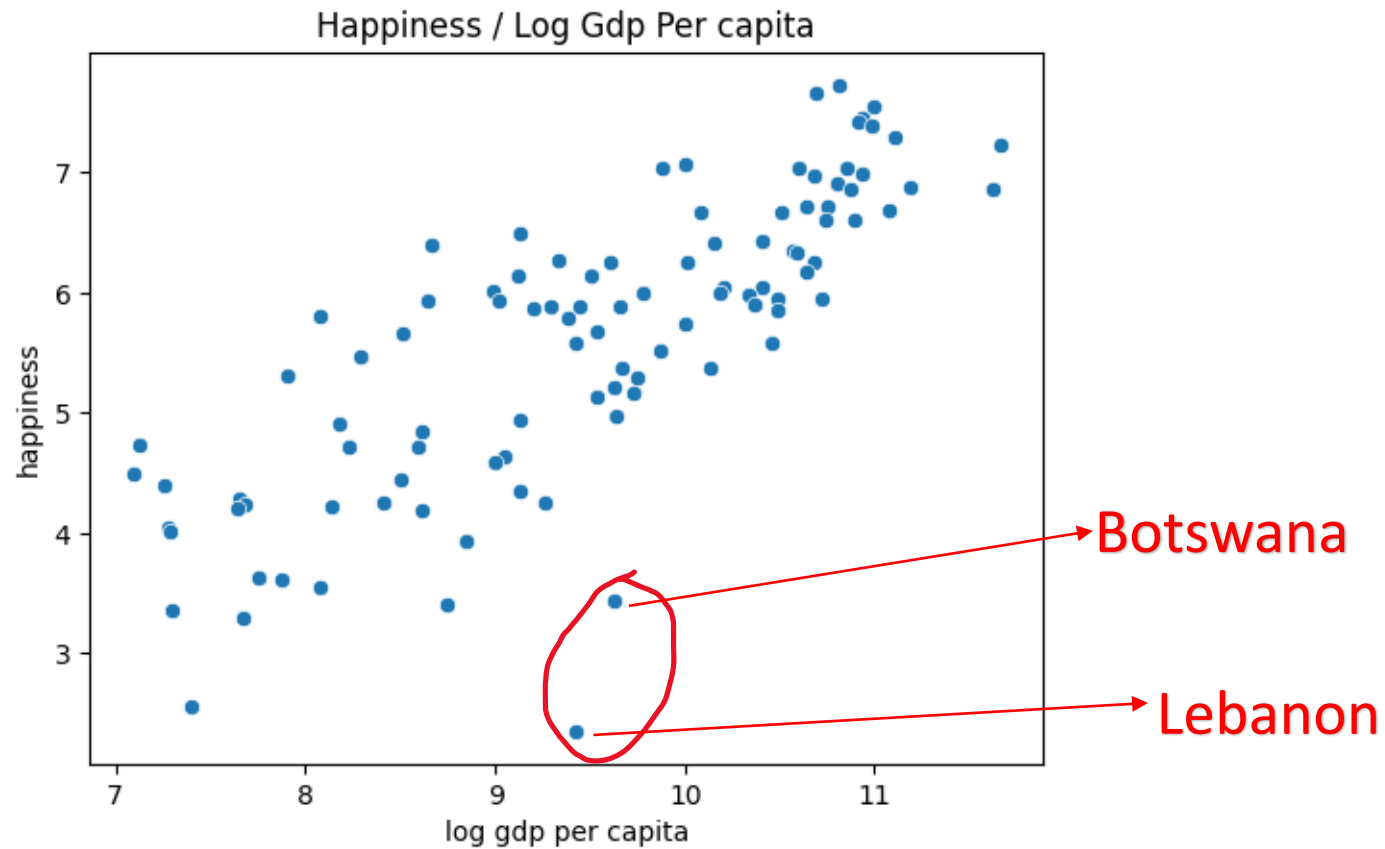

Answer 2: 'social support' is most closely related to 'happiness'.

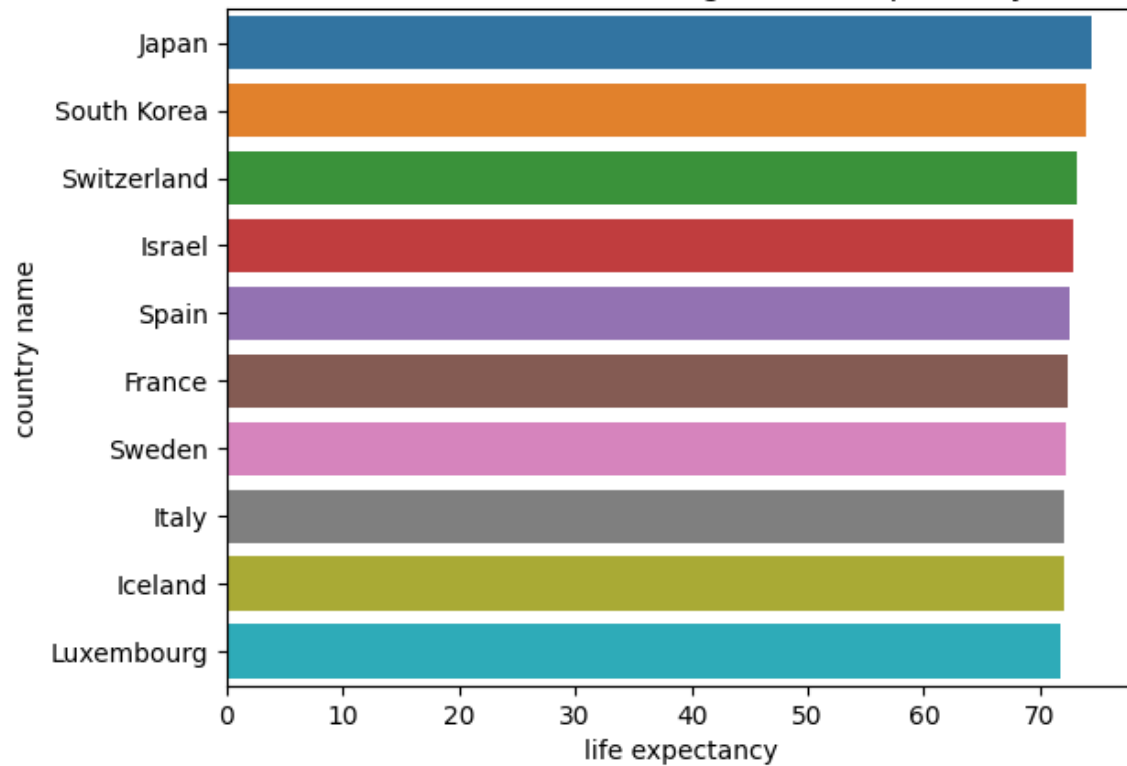

This plot shows that people in richer countries are happier.

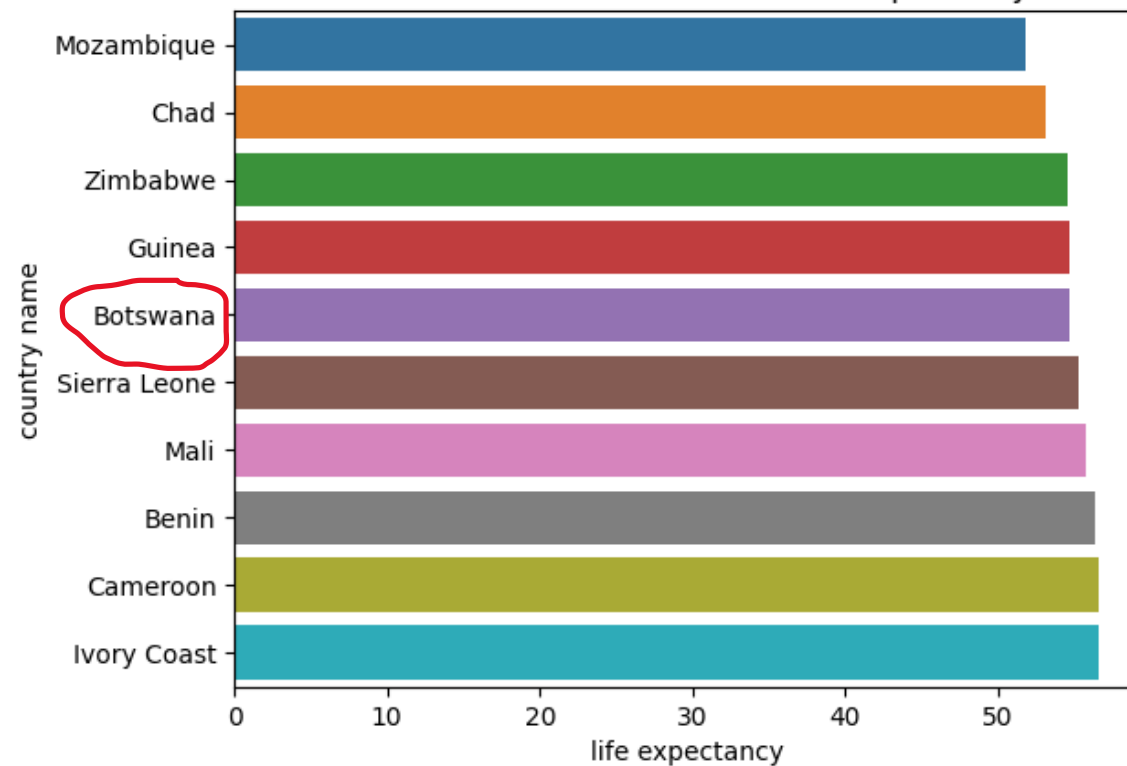

However, there are two exceptions to this trend.

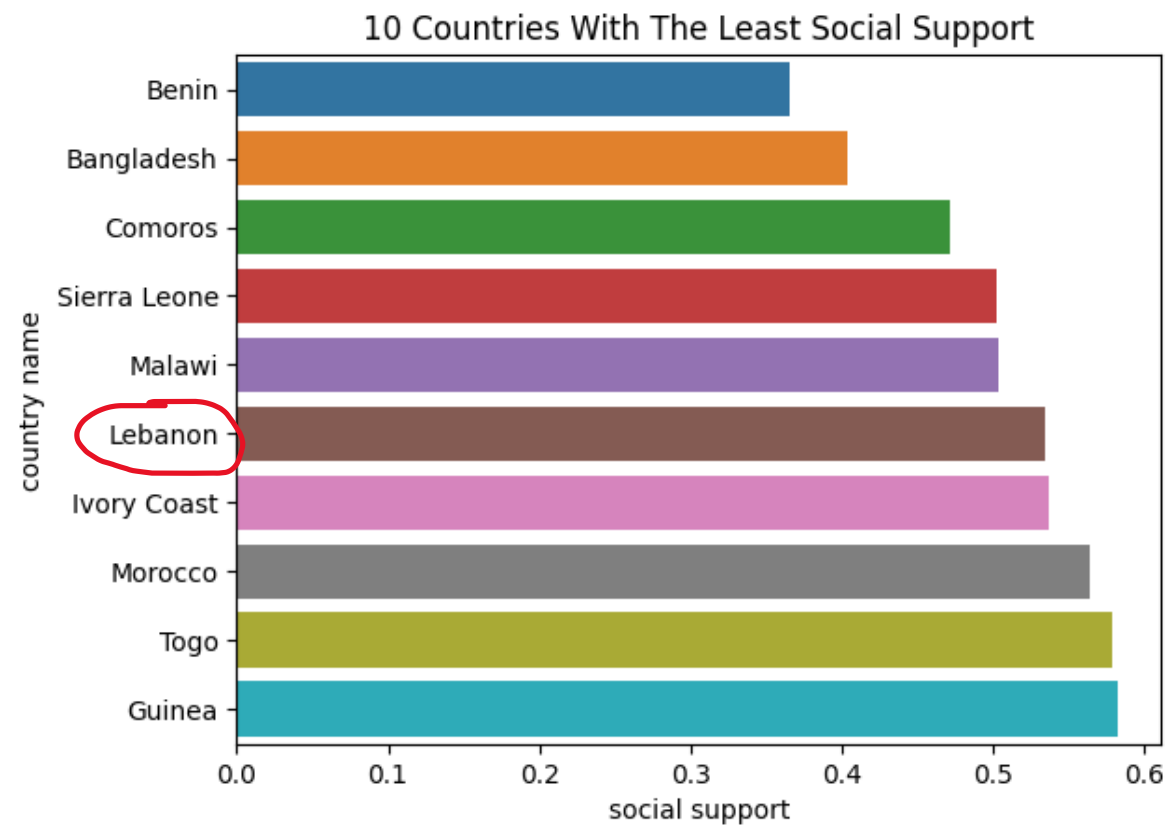

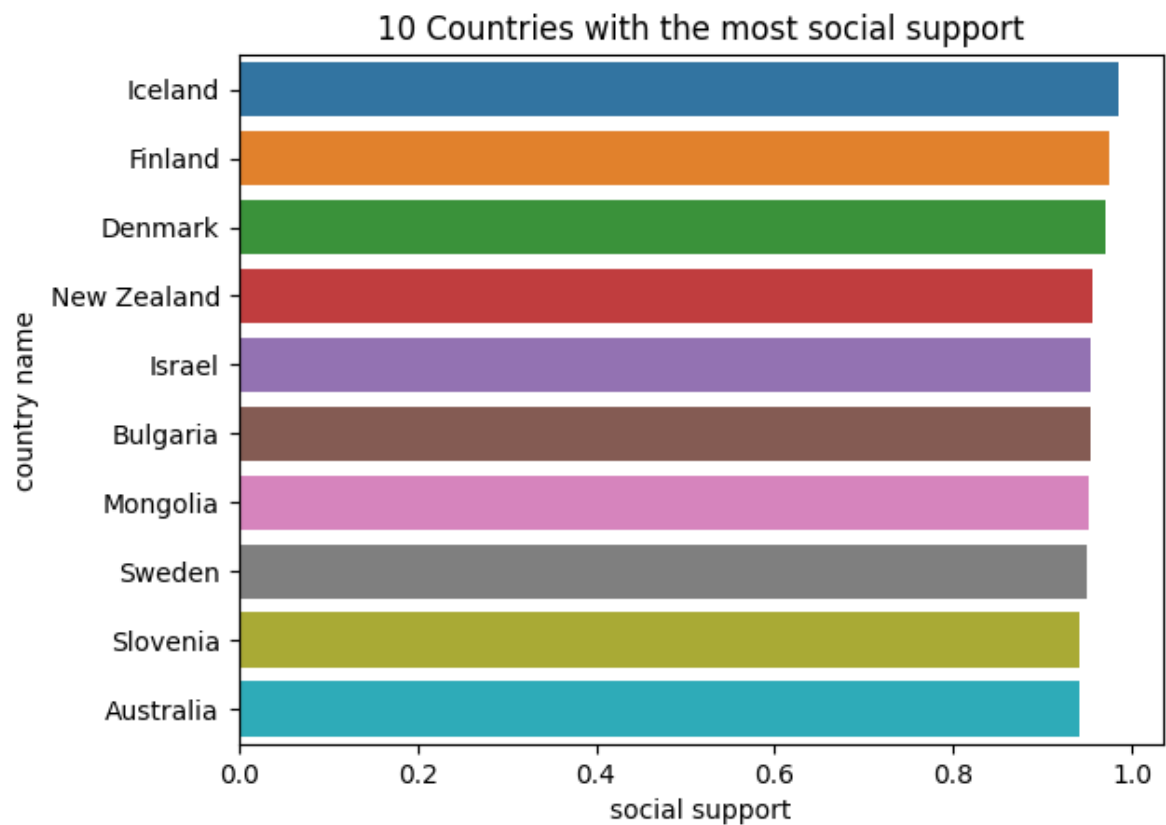

10 Countries with the Highest life expectancy

10 Countries with the Lowest life expectancy

Answer 3:

Wealth is not the most important factor, nor is it the only factor that leads to happiness.

According to observation, in most cases, people living in richer countries feel happier.

But in special cases, in the face of helpless in trouble, disease and other negative factors together, people living in richer countries does not feel happier.